At Back on My Feet, our unique FundRacing program combines the power of fitness and the crucial funding support needed to continue growing our impact across the U.S. Our Marathon Brunches are vital to this program as they allow our members and supporters to share the profound effects of our community, together.

Because you are an essential part of our members' journeys, we're inviting you to join us in sponsoring a marathon brunch in 2023.

With the support of partners like you, we've helped thousands of people gain sustainable employment while also providing a supportive and growing community of individuals that lead our members to stability and success.

Your support empowers our members to overcome their challenges, raise their sights, and transform their lives.

Together, we are a movement for change.

The sponsorship levels on the right indicate the cost for sponsorship for one brunch but can be multiplied if your company is interested in supporting more than one event.
